

This is a basic guide to using the 5G Transformation Kit.

The latter half of this booklet was designed for advanced energy work and is available for anyone who feels the urge to work further with these tools.

Thank you so much for making this investment and for doing this work for all of those around you!!

The tools never need cleared and will continue to produce beneficial fields for lifetimes.

Tensor Field Generator

This is a simple tool to use, as it automatically protects, transforms, and harmonizes.

People have noted changes in neighborhoods, and people in general, with just this copper sphere in the home.

Place the Generator in any space you wish to change the energy of.

Use at your desk or in your locker, on the bed stand or in the bath.

Put it in your backpack or briefcase or keep it in your car. The Generator can reach $\frac{3}{4}$ of a mile out before the field begins to fade.

Other uses include holding it in the hands for meditation, healing work on the body, placing crystals inside or underneath the Generator to broadcast their energetic qualities, or just leave it be and let it do its work!

Cell Phone Tab

Peel the sticker off the back of the Tab and place anywhere on the back of the phone, or phone case. It will remain there until you intentionally pry it off. If you remove your Cell Tab and need a new sticky backing, please email us and we will send you a replacement sticky for free!

The Cell Tab can be used on any electronics device. The Cell Tab can even transform a home's electrical system by simply placing it on the home's electric panel.

What the Cell Tab does

Instead of trying to block harmful energies, our tools are transforming non-beneficial electromagnetics into a smooth and highly beneficial energy.

The bio-feedback studies done on the Cell Tab show that it is beneficial to the body's energy systems, and makes organs function better while you are using your phone!

Your electronic device essentially becomes a protective device with the Cell Tab installed. Simply carry your cell phone with Cell Phone Tab adhered, and your field is protected from outside energies!

Wand Pendant

Though it comes with an adjustable lanyard, the Wand does not have to be worn as a pendant. It can be carried in the pocket or in a bag. As long as the Wand is on your person, it is working with your energy field. This gives protection from outside energies by transforming them as they come into your personal field.

The Wand can be used to move energy. Here is a fun and easy experiment in feeling energy.

In this exercise, you may have physical sensations like old aches or pains come up intensely, then just fade out. Whether it's a physical or emotional sensation, don't fight it. Just let it flow on through.

How to begin:

Hold the Wand by the handle with your right hand.

Do not touch your palm.

Make circles or figure 8's with the tip pointed at your palm.

The Wand should be about a quarter of an inch away from touching the palm.

Make tight circles or figure 8's in any direction around, until you can feel the energy in the left palm.

The circles or infinities can get larger and slower as you feel the energy on the palm.

If you can feel this energy, you may also feel the flow up the arm. Some may feel an energy like cool water, some will feel a heat in the chest. If you feel heat in the chest, please read on.

Sacred Heart

One of the reasons we call this the Golden Fire and Light Wand has to do with the color and energy of the Wand. For most, the Wand helps uncover that golden light of the heart. For some, the Golden Fire is activated within the heart. This has been known as the Sacred Heart in some cultures and religions.

If your chest is on fire, just breath, let it flow, it is a good thing.

This is a good thing

If you feel your Sacred Heart has become activated, or felt a shift of some kind within your being, then congrats!!! If you did not feel a thing, but are interested in what is going on here, then yay!! Let's move on to some more advanced stuff!!

Actively working with the Wand

If you wish to explore some of the more latent potentials of the wand, then let's begin with creating columns of light!

Light columns

Using the Golden Fire and Light Wand to create columns of light is one of the most potent and powerful things you can do with this tool!

Start with the object or space you are going put a column of light at.

It could be somewhere you spend time at, a space to clear energetically, or the cell phone tower down the street.

Hold your Wand straight out in front of you, arm extended all the way out and at eye level. Look at the Wand in front of you, and where you are putting a column of light at, at the same time.

Imagine that wand becoming a column of golden fiery light.

This column of light extends deep into the earth and up to the heavens.

That's it! It is that simple! You do not have to believe in this stuff for shifts to have taken place, even if it is only energetic at first.

This column of Light will transform energy just as the Golden Fire Generator does. This also works with people, places, water, communication towers, electrical substations, grocery store lines, cemeteries, and wherever else you can imagine!

It is not limited to clearing nonbeneficial frequencies, this column of light can be used for healing work too!

More information on Light columns.

Once this column of light is there, it will stay for as long as is needed, even indefinitely.

The column of light can be as large in diameter as you need it to be.

This is a higher form of heart-based light that will not interfere with another human being's path or life journey.

Once you place a column of light over a communications tower or 5G antennae, the transmissions become beneficial to everyone and everything.

Here is one exception... if someone is in fear of a communications tower and has a strong belief that it will hurt them, that becomes their reality and over-rides the fact that the tower is now beneficial.

This leads us to working with others. But first, we must do the work for ourselves before we do it with others. Hang on, here we go!!!

More about the Wand energetics

Part of what makes the Golden Fire and Light Wand so powerful, is the Golden Light Rod. This is an ancient energetic tool we found that does some major environmental work. It moves and clears nonbeneficial geomagnetic lines and geopathic stress lines, shuts down nonbeneficial energy vortices, closes nonbeneficial portals, and clears timelines and realities.

You do not have to be aware of any of this stuff when you do the work. When you place a column of light into a space, these things happen automatically.

Another aspect of the Golden Fire and Light Wand is the Golden Fire. As mentioned earlier, the Golden Fire is the energy which comes from an activated Sacred Heart.

Golden Fire

With the first exercise, you should have the Sacred Heart activated. This means you carry the Golden Fire within you and makes the Wand even that more powerful when you work with it.

The Golden Fire of the Sacred Heart helps clear away any of the energetic baggage we carry that no longer serves us. This itself is healing on many levels and layers.

The Golden Fire also effects ghosts and disincarnate spirits. The Golden Fire and Light column draws them in and they connect with their higher-selves, Source, Soul, God, and are lovingly taken to the other side.

Meditative ways to work with the Wand

Some of the most profound energy work we can do is while in meditation. This isn't a form of traditional meditation where you spend hours chanting ohm or trying to quiet the mind. Consciousness work is what I would call the form of meditation we are about to do. It is simple, easy, and profound, and anyone can do it.

The Heart Space

Being in the heart is the only prerequisite for doing Consciousness work. The physical heart is where we house our light, our higher consciousness, or our Soul. Scientifically, the heart is where our consciousness resides before birth, within the actual brain cells within our heart. It is this space that we move our awareness from the ego-influenced head, and back into the heart again.

To enter the Heart Space, begin by holding the Wand. Have the intention of moving from the head, and into the heart. Take a deep breath, release, and you are there!

More information on the Sacred Space of the Heart can be found on our website or YouTube channel.

Working with yourself

Begin from the Heart Space, by holding the Wand and taking a breath. Then state your intention of being clean and clear. Clean and clear of all programs, beliefs, and emotions that no longer serve you. Clean and clear throughout all time, all space, all dimensions, all realities, that you exist within. This includes any heritage issues that are passed down through your DNA.

Take a deep breath in, and release. And trust that all is done in your highest and best good.

Working with others

When we do this type of energy work for others, we are not choosing the outcome for them, or what we think is for their highest and best good. We simply hold space for them and their light for whatever is in the highest and best good for them.

When you work with others, they do not have to be present. All we do is visualize, pretend, intend, that they are standing right in front of you. Take a breath to be in the Heart. Then create a column of golden, fiery, light for them to be in. Hold that neutral space for about a minute, or until you feel the work is complete. It's that simple!

Working with the environment

Again, simply creating these Golden Fire and Light columns is all that is necessary for most situations. I cannot stress how powerful and versatile these light columns are.

To create a column of light at a certain point, you must be able to see that space in your mind's eye. Instead of saying "I am going to put a column of light on every 5G antenna on Earth" you need to see the antenna first to create the column of light there.

Once you are familiar with this exercise, it will be second nature to just place a column of light without any effort, everywhere you look!

Using the Wand to run energy

What is meant by running energy is to simply move energy. When you run energy with the wand, the Golden Fire and Light moves out the tip of the wand to where your attention is focused.

To run energy with the wand, it is just like the first exercise of making small circles or figure 8's, in any direction, with the wand.

We see that when you run energy out the tip of the wand, it is working on the physical by raising the light within the cells, clearing out dense energy, and harmonizing the area.

The focal point of your wanding does not have to be right in front of you. Your attention can be focused on your brother's big toe on the other side of the country, and it will be no different than being there in person, wading the toe.

Everything is energy, and energy is certainly not bound by space and time.

Try running energy into your water, food, plants, medications, etc. There are so many ways to use this energy to transform the world around you.

The Wand also clears and activates crystals.

Recap of Consciousness work / Light Work

As always, when we do the Consciousness work, start from the Heart Space. Do not be in judgement nor fear of whatever you are working on, as this is contradictory to being in the Heart.

Do not try to create an outcome to be in any certain way. We need to simply hold space for the highest and greatest good to occur. The Golden Fire and the Golden Light will only work from this higher heart-based perspective.

You can never do wrong with this type of work. If something is not meant to be, in the highest and best good it won't. These tools, and this energy, will never interfere with the free-will of any being.

Everyone's experience will be different. You may or may not feel or see any of what was discussed here, but that does not mean it didn't happen! When we are in the Heart Space and doing consciousness work, magic and miracles happen!
